

Time for another one of our awesome-yet-fat-free Listener Request episodes of The Sound Of Plaid!

Once again we invite listeners to make requests for vague concepts only... no specific songs. But don't worry; the perfect song to match your concept will be chosen -- either by us, or by other listeners. Wisdom of the crowd, y'know?

Last month we successfully launched our automagical semi-robotic listener request system that coordinates your requests and suggested matches. So let's turn it back on and have another go!
