

Earlier this year The ECC once again joined Bernardo Attias and Fred Church, this time in New Orleans for the 2011

SCMS

Conference. The panel: "The DJ in Electronic Dance Music - Media Citizenship, Appropriation, and Cultural Hybridity"

The DJ in Electronic Dance Music - Media Citizenship, Appropriation, and Cultural Hybridity

. Like their 2010

collaboration in Seattle

, Bernardo and Fred gave talks which were remixed and augmented by The ECC using the

VidiMasher 3000

. That was followed by The ECC (TradeMark Gunderson and Christy Brand) giving a talk about recent challenges producing the new ECC

All Rights Reserved

album. The resulting Q&A with the audience was a rewarding and engaging 45 minutes -- just 10 minutes less than the talks that preceded it.

DJ Professor Ben \(Bernardo Attias\)

{audio}http://evolution-

Kumquat \(Fred Church\)

{audio}http://evolution-control.com/im

The Evolution Control Committee \(TradeMark Gunderson and Christy Brand\)

{audio}http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3/live/scms/3%20

Q&A

{audio}http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3

□