

Technical problems at the FCC Free Radio studio prevented us from doing our usual live Tuesday episode of our weekly internet radio show The Sound Of Plaid, so the next day we prerecorded an episode to air 12/10/09 exclusively for listeners of

and

Shouting Fire

. On Monday of that week we finished the mastering for all but one of the songs from our upcoming album All Rights Reserved, so we played a number of those and beamed like proud mothers. Add a bit of 70's radio soul (Stevie Wonder, Patti Labelle, etc.) and some 80's cuts and you've got a two hour block of fun! Listen below or for later.
