

Time for another one of our vague yet oh-so-awesome Listener Request episodes of The Sound Of Plaid!

Once again we invite listeners to make requests for vague concepts only... no specific songs. But don't worry; the perfect song to match your concept will be chosen -- either by us, or by other listeners. Wisdom of the crowd, y'know?

To coordinate this game of indirect connections our listener request system will take your requests and let you suggest matches for others' requests. So get vague and make your request below!
