

Our second music guest episode in a row -- this week it's experimental techno super duo The Fallen!

We've been wanting to get Kevin (FBK) and James (Plural) on our show for a while, and at their great 2014 Fuse Factory performance we cornered them to nail down a date. Their dark, sparse, atmospheric beats are driven by

live energy and gear lust

but hide their humor and BFFness which comes out in our interview.

Don't miss it!
