Make your listener requests for The Sound Of Plaid!

Tuesday, 11 June 2013 17:24

Our Listener Request episodes of The Sound Of Plaid are favorites for us, and we think for listeners as well. Each time we invite listeners to make requests for vague concepts only
... no specific songs... that's our job, to choose songs we think match the concepts. In later episodes we invited listeners to help, by suggesting songs that match other people's requests... wisdom of the crowd, y'know?

But, coordinating all this before each episode has been a lot of work for us and the call for requests have been limited to Facebook users who happen to see them at just the right time... not ideal. Now we're trying something new.

Use the form below and submit your request. Below it is a list of requests others have made.   See a request you have a match for?   Click the link to enter it in our spreadsheet.

(OOPS: Left out a place for people to leave their names... corrected now. You can also ad d your name to a previous request or match!)

It's too late for your re we've already aired thishstenw, bouteyoisoade at the archive . **
