

Ingenuity Fest Cleveland 2008 was a grand success, and The ECC had a couple very successful and well-attended shows there, debuting new lights on the Thimbletron, new music, and more. There are a number of live videos fans have uploaded; see our picks in our post in the Videos section

. As well,

a number of Flickr sets

have appeared with many good live shots;

Chris Helton's set

has dozens of great shots of our daytime show, including the one to the right..
