THE KITCHEN OF THE FUTURE

...today!

How many times has THIS happened to you: You're making toast... but you wish you were playing a samba! Frustrating, isn't it?

But now with The Evolution Control Committee, your problems are a thing of the past! It's a kitchen appliance! It's a musical instrument! It's The Kitchen of the Future, a set of circuit-bent, MIDI-compatible kitchen appliances. A samba on the toaster? Did it in Toronto at the debut, May 2005. The show ended with our custom blender mixing frozen margaritas AND triggering samples from the song Tequila.
