show announcements list:

We send out periodic (monthly or less) mailings to tell people about touring dates, when the web site has changed, when we release new music, when we get threatened by multinational corporations, and so on. If you'd like to receive such news, fill out the "Sign up for show alerts" form to the right. We do not share our emailing list with anybody.

elsewhere on the web:

The ECC is out 'n' about on the interwebs. Although this site will always be the most up-to-date and have the most content, you can also find The ECC (or TradeMark G.) on YouTu
